

Dear Friends,

Last month, we wrote to you to let you know about our summer here at Ponca. We told you of the great things that God did this summer, and the lives that were changed. So, today's letter may surprise many of you. It is with heavy hearts that we want to let you know that we will be leaving Ponca Bible Camp at the end of December.

Questions are always asked when news like this comes out. What happened? Why are they leaving? Whose fault is it? Who can we blame? The simple answer to all of this is nothing terrible has happened. No one is to blame. God has made it clear to us that it is time for us to move on, and we would never want to question God's plan for our lives. Sometimes it is just time to move on.

The last five years have been an incredible blessing to Becca, me and our family. Ponca Bible Camp is a very special place that we have loved living and serving the Lord at. We have made great friends, worked alongside some wonderful people, and we will miss that. For me (Bob), personally, the last five years was a dream realized that God had laid on my heart a long time ago. And for that I am truly thankful.

The next question that we have heard is, "what's next"? For now, we do not know definitely what we are doing, but our heart is still in camp ministries. Hopefully we will have some news to share with you soon about where we are going and what we will be doing. This is a very scary, yet very exciting time in our lives. Once again, we are in a place where we eagerly wait to see what God is going to do with our lives.

Please pray for us as we want to finish well here at Ponca Bible Camp, and leave things in great shape for the next Administrators. Also pray for what God has next for us. Pray especially for Hannah as it will likely mean her moving schools in the middle of her Junior year. Andrew and Emily are both off at college, but pray for them as well. Ponca has been home for the last 5 years, and it will be strange for them to come “home” to a place they have never really lived before. And finally, please pray for Becca and me to have wisdom as we move forward.

We ask that those of you that support us financially please continue to do so at least until the end of the year. We will keep you updated on where we will be going and ask that you prayerfully consider continued support as we anticipate continuing camp ministry in a position that will require support raising.

We thank all of you for the opportunity we have had to serve here at Ponca Bible Camp. Thank you for all your work, support, and prayers through the years as we tried to help campers “know Christ personally and make Him known”. We pray that Ponca Bible Camp will continue to be used of God for many years to come.

Sincerely,

Bob and Becca Adamson
